MARQUETTE
78

Look back my friend
At the smiling faces,
Do you remember the places
We used to go?

How can you forget, my friend,
The kind of life we led back then.
A life not as complicated as we'd thought,
What was it out of life that we sought.

Time seemed to fly,
For we were all so busy then,
At times we took for granted,
Each other, my dear friend.

But search the corners of your mind
For memories you left behind,
Look back into that happy time
When I was yours and you were mine.

Has everything changed?
So it seems,
Or is there still time
To carry out old dreams?

We, as editors, would like to thank all the people who have provided their continuing aid for the completion of this yearbook. We must mention our advisor Mr. Young, our staff and non-staff photographers (and developers), our executive staff, those who gathered ads for us (Teri), the office (thanks Mrs. McMahon), and our regular staff including those who offered their assistance but for whom we could not possibly find work. We hope you enjoy your yearbook.

Thank you very much,
Mary and Matt

P.S. Thanks Mom.

Our time together have finally passed
Into that place behind our minds.
Where memories dance, and [illegible] be dreams
Can really be for us.

Time has blown like a gentle wind
Nothing there when we reach to hold.
And so we choked, and now we slip
Into things that we hope to [illegible]

My eyes alight when I look back
The laughter, tears, the love, the pain
[illegible]ect to learn

[illegible] light ahead
[illegible] then.
[illegible] with me
[illegible] see?

[illegible]imple tears
[illegible] to leave.
